Austin, Texas 78612
www.lostpines.hyatt.com

This 405 acre resort adjoins 1,100 acres of nature park near Bastrop, Texas. On-site, you'll find a variety of recreation, leisure and entertainment options, from horseback riding to spa, golf and water recreation activities. Choose the dining to suit your mood, from casual cafes to fine dining, or possibly some ice cream from a general store. Overall there are 60,000 square feet of indoor and 230,000 square feet of outdoor event space, as well as a creative, helpful and expert staff. You can order up some room service almost anytime, but you may want to head down to the bar for some live music first. There is a wide range of accommodations, from rooms to suites and even special hypo-allergenic and handicapped accessible lodging. Look out over the grounds from your balcony and truly relax and rejuvenate, even during a business trip.
